Student Ceilidh after the Introductory Course on Friday, July 7, 2017

A fun evening of traditional Scottish dancing with the Science Ceilidh Band, plus a glass of wine on arrival! There will be a pay bar for additional drinks.

When: 20:00 - 23:00, Friday, July 7, 2017

Where: Debating Hall, Teviot Row House, 3 Bristo Place, Edinburgh EH8 9AJ

Cost: 12.00 €

Who can attend? Students and PhD students who have registered for the Introductory Course on Friday July 7, 2017.

How to get tickets? Please send an e-mail to info@glia2017.eu including the number of tickets you would like to book and your participant number. We will send you the corresponding invoice and you will get the tickets during the registration for the Introductory Course on-site at the meeting venue Edinburgh International Conference Centre (EICC).

About the venue:

Teviot Row House is the oldest purpose built Student Union in the world. It opened its doors in 1889 and it remains one of the most vibrant and well used Student Union venues in the country.
How to get there:

The bus station Fountainbridge is in walking distance (about 5 min) from the Edinburgh International Conference Centre (EICC). Take bus no. 47, direction Ladywood. After 3 stops go out at the station Bristo Place. The venue Teviot Row House is about 200 meters from the bus station.